Townhouses Keep New Home Starts Elevated in Second Quarter

New home starts in the Hamilton and Brantford Census Metropolitan Areas (hereafter referred to as Hamilton and Brantford) last quarter were strong, increasing 23 and 42 per cent, respectively, compared to the same period last year. Strong starts of semi-detached homes and townhouses in Hamilton and townhouses in Brantford last quarter accounted for some of the increase. First half total starts are also up in Hamilton and Brantford by 18 and 30 per cent, respectively, from last year.

Although single-detached homes continue to account for approximately half of total starts in the Hamilton market, they fell behind by
